

Learning Auckland Leadership Table Members - February 2016

Name	Role	Organisation
Alison Sutton	Manager Literacy and Family Learning	COMET Auckland (backbone organisation)
Angus Fletcher	Chairperson	The Fletcher Trust (philanthropic)
Brian Putt	Director	Metro Planning
Catherine Cooper	Director	The Cube (youth disability connecting organisation)
Claire Gomas	Manager Skills and Employment	ATEED (Auckland Tourism, Events and Economic Development)
Dame Lesley Max	Chief Executive	Great Potentials Foundation (community organisation – early childhood education and youth mentoring)
Deidre Alderson	Principal	Willowbank School (head of primary principals association)
Graeme Aitken	Dean	Faculty of Education, University of Auckland
Jenny Bygrave	Head of Strategic Developments	AUT (Auckland University of Technology)
Joy Eaton	Deputy Director, Starpath	Faculty of Education, University of Auckland (heads a major study on secondary school effectiveness and tertiary transition)
Kataraina Maki	General Manager Social and Community Policy	Auckland Council
Linda Aumua	Director, Pasifika	Unitec (university)
Lynda Stuart	Principal	May Rd School (representing the early childhood and primary teachers' union)
Michael Burgess	Executive Officer Advocacy Services	Employers and Manufacturers Association
Michael Williams	Principal	Pakuranga College (head of secondary school principals association)
Natalie Faitala	HOD English	Wesley College (representing secondary teachers' union)
Sina Wendt-Moore	Chief Executive	Leadership NZ
Stuart Middleton	Director External Relations	Manukau Institute of Technology (polytechnic)
Susan Morton	Director, Growing Up in NZ	University of Auckland (heads a major longitudinal study of child development)
Susan Warren	Chief Executive	COMET Auckland (backbone organisation)
Therese Ireland-Smith	Manager Health Promoting Schools	Cognition Education (professional development and research provider)
Trudie McNaughton	Pro-Vice Chancellor (Equity)	University of Auckland